

Zaid Tayseer Alfugaraa

Agriculture Engineer MBA

My Contact

✉ Alkaraki.zaid@yahoo.com

☎ +962-798334748

📍 Az Zarqa, Jordan

Scientific qualification

- Bachelor in Animal Production Management from University of Jordan, Amman 2015 .
- Master of Business Administration MBA from Mutah University , 2022 .
studied in English language

Experiences

JUN 2015 – OCT 2022

Role: hatchery supervisor at National Poultry Co.

Training courses

- Embrex InOvo machine driving license by Zoetis.(2015)
- Basic computer driving skills course: Excell, outlook, work...(2017)
- Business English training course: writing, speaking, listening and reporting. (Current)
- Hatcheries management skills and chicks quality evaluation .
- Hatchery management course from the Syndicate of Agricultural Engineers
- ISO 22000 .

Language

Arabic (good)
English (good)

Personal skills

- Ability to learn fast, ambition, good work as a team, good work under pressure, leadership, good experience in broiler poultry farms and poultry breeders.
- I have a valid driver's license

Job responsibilities

- evaluation, monitoring and insure the best chicks quality for daily hatching chicks.
- documenting all the qualitative and quantitative information in the daily and accumulative tables.
- checking and following the critical parameters during the incubation process to insure achieving the target set points.
- selecting the best quality eggs at arrival and insure the best handling practices.
- Supervising on the Receiving of hatching eggs from breeders farms that inserted into egg grading and sorting machine "prinzen" which goes with many processes from ejecting the over&under weight eggs to positioning the eggs in the right position (end pointed down) inside the setter trays
- keeping the eggs during storage and before the setting in the target temp, humidity and disinfection.
- conducting all requested tests for fertility , wt loss, eggshell temp, turning, ventilation , hatching time, hatch window and chiding the best time to pull off the the trolleys.
- following the standard procedure for In Ovo injection process using the Embrex machine on daily basis .
- prepare and and deliver the vaccines for In Ovo machine in by the best practices and within the given time.
- build a great knowledge through dealing with most of regular maintenance and sudden stoppage cases of Embrex .
- doing all the standard quality tests before , during and after the InOvo injection process.
- analyze the collected data for traceability process when needed to find the reasons for any deviations in performance or quality related to eggs, chicks or incubation process.
- on daily basis , conducting the Tona scoring system for chicks quality .
- contacting the related steak-holders to receive or send the effective and beneficial data and feedback especially for breeders , broilers, top management , clients, ...